Now Offering Payment Plans on Select Carlson Software

September 15, 2020

Trying to get started with new Carlson Software? Need a little help without hitting the credit cards?

For a limited time, That CAD Girl will be offering payment plans for select Carlson Software. Maybe you want to get started with one module or a bundled set, just let us know and we can work up a proposal allowing payments over a couple months.

Also, with all purchases of software between now and 12/11/2020 you will receive 50% off registration for our 3 days of continuing education Virtual Workshops in December 2020.
